b. SOURCE: (c) From December 1967 until May 1969, Source was a part-time informant for the Ministerium für Staatssicherheit (MfS-Ministry for State Security) Hauptabteilung Aufklärung (HVA-Haupt Department for Intelligence), in West Germany (West Zone of Occupied Germany - SWO) and East Berlin (Soviet Sector of Berlin - SS). From June 1969 to December 1969, Source worked as a full-time salaried informant for MfS/HVA, acting as a spion/assessor targeted primarily against US and other Western citizens visiting the International Trade Fair in Leipzig, 1969, and relatives in the SS/SVO. Source revealed information concerning her activities as an MfS informant, names of several MfS agents and informants, and the names of several who may have been recruited and may still be working as informants for the MfS in Western countries. Source was exfiltrated from the SVO to the Federal Republic of Germany (FRG) on 24 February 1973.	u. APPROVAL NUMBER: 66-716-687A v. APPROVAL DATE: 20 May 1973 w. APPROVAL BY: [Signature]

On 27 and 28 February 1973, respectively, Source's husband, Hans-Joergen Kalenkowski, and Source, respectively, were exfiltrated from the SSB through the SSO via the Hartenborn/Kleinbott crossing point into the FRG. They were hidden in the trunk of an automobile operated by a US student. Source refused to provide further details concerning the identity of their exfiltrator or his whereabouts because he is a friend of Source's sister, Karinette Schubert nee Jank, DFOG, 5 February 1940, Berlin, Germany, residing at 39 Kuehnenstrasse, Berlin-Lichtenberg, FRG. Source and her husband decided to escape after her husband was presented by SSB Criminal Police to inform them if and when an attempt was made to contact them regarding their exfiltration. On 28 January 1973, Source's husband was apprehended by the SSB Criminal Police, and was interrogated at the Kleinbottstrasse police headquarters; the police insisted that Source's husband report any attempt by anyone to contact him and his wife regarding their exfiltration. Source and her husband had been involved in the exfiltration attempt of one Jutta Rieckhoff nee Hartenberg. The attempt was made by Harry Wunderlich, a courier for the US exfiltrator Jim Kupper. Wunderlich and Rieckhoff were arrested on 27 and 28 January, respectively. Because of their involvement in this attempt, and because Source's husband wished to escape with his wife as soon as possible, he agreed to cooperate with the police. He was given the telephone number, 51 777 669, which he was to use in reporting any attempts US exfiltrators made to contact him.
Kalenkowski, a fashion consultant/consultant by profession, worked from June 1966 to May 1969 as a fashion designer for the SSB's Theatre of Friendship. From June 1969 to December 1970, she worked as a full-time salaried informant for the MfS, KGB. From January 1970 to October 1970, Kalenkowski was unemployed. From November 1970 until her escape in February 1973, she worked as a fashion designer and saleswoman for the VfB and Diplomats Shopping Center, located within the Warenhaus Zentrum Department Store, Alexander Platz, ASB-Mitte.
In the Fall of 1957, Source was approached in the SSB by an unidentified individual, allegedly a reporter for a Capital newspaper, who wanted to hire Source as a secretary for his paper's SSB office. He did not trust the man, and reported the matter to the SSB's townhall authorities. Some weeks later, Kalenkowski was approached by one Bernd Rost, born circa 1932, an MfS officer. After a few meetings with Rost in her apartment at 9 Kapitzastrasse, SSB-Mitte, Source fell in love with Rost by December 1958. She was working full-time as an informant for MfS/MfA. Rost gave Source his office telephone number in the SSB, 559 20 76, extension 1107, and stated that his office was located at Hermannstrasse, SSB (MfS H2). In the employ of the MfS, Source traveled to the Leipzig Trade Fair in March 1960 accompanied by Rost. Returning from the trip to Leipzig, Kalenkowski signed a written obligation to work for the MfS, and was assigned the cover name of Karita. Later in March 1960, Source was assigned a new agent Handler, Helmut Kolberg, born in approximately 1931, who had the same telephone number as Rost, but w/d extension 1101. After March 1960, Kalenkowski had no further contact with Rost, and never saw him again. Meetings with Kolberg were held in Source's apartment, and later in public places such as the Cafe Budapest and the Cafe Maritim. Because she performed well in her job as a part-time informant, the MfS urged Rost to quit her job and work full-time for them. For the 1st, and from June 1957 until December 1969, Source received a monthly salary of Deutsche Mark East (DEM) 1000, in addition to 1-2-30, to MfS 50, for expenses. Travel expenses were also paid when appropriate. In the Summer of 1967, Kolberg introduced Source to Anders, Rost's alleged supervisor, who was born in approximately 1931, and used the same office telephone number and extension. Anders urged Source to learn English, specifically the American dialect. In addition Anders suggested to learn American culture, and to become acquainted with American folk culture via television to prepare her for assignments in the West. Anders further informed Source that in the future, she would be required to sleep with various men, and pay remuneration each action. Anders also requested that Source undergo some training given by the MfS. This however, never materialized. Later, Anders spoke with Anders a few times on the telephone. Their last conversation was in 1970.

In the Fall of 1969, Source's relations with the KGB had begun to deteriorate. The KGB did not keep its promises to allow her to study fashion design, and she refused to discontinue seeing her boyfriend, now her husband, whom she met in the Summer of 1969. Source informed her boyfriend of her contact with the KGB, and in 1969 Kalkowski was helped by her to compose her weekly activities reports for the KGB, and accompanied her to meetings with potential future KGB informants. In December 1969, Source was dropped without prejudice from the KGB/MTA. Until the Summer of 1972, however, she had several meetings and telephone calls with Kolberg. Kalkowski was primarily assigned as a spotter/assessor in addition to her details as an informant. She attended the Leipzig Trade Fair in 1966 and 1969; her job there was to approach individuals residing in the West, primarily Americans, in order to establish contacts which could later be developed for possible recruitment attempts by the KGB. At the Fairs and on other occasions in the 1960 and the 1970s, the KGB gave Source names of Western visitors, whom she had to contact under the guise of a student interested in what Westerners thought of life in the DDR. Further, she was told to frequent favorite tourist attractions in the DDR, mainly bars, restaurants, and hotels, among them: the Linden Diner, Cafe Neukölln, Hotel Unter den Linden, and the Hotel Bellevue. Whenever the KGB did not know the exact date of a visit to be made by an American to his relatives in the DDR/GDR, Source was assigned the task of contacting the relatives, asking them to contact her when their visitor arrived. For this purpose, Subject used her true name and address. Whenever any individual was of interest to the KGB, Kalkowski had to introduce him to her KGB agent handlers. She, herself, was never assigned to recruit anyone for the KGB. While employed as a saleswoman in the above-mentioned shopping center for VIPs and Diplomats, Kalkowski was approached in April 1971 by her former Agent Handler, Kolberg, and was asked to work as an informant at the shopping center for the KGB Counter Intelligence Section. Kolberg introduced Source to KGB Agent Michael LEU, born in circa 1943. Michael's office, which was located in Room number 300 at the Shopping Center, was used by him for meetings with informants. Source was also given Michael's telephone number at his official KGB office, the location of which is unknown to Source. Michael instructed her to report on the activities and attitudes of her superiors and co-workers; she was told to pay particular attention to one Hans Morkert, born on 12 March 1939, residing at 14 Kantinen Allee, 220-Frankfurt, who was the section chief of the Shopping Center. Morkert allegedly has good connections to old guard communists around Walter Ulbricht. Instead of reporting on Morkert as instructed, Source told Morkert of the KGB's interest in him; they eventually became friends, but Source is convinced that Morkert, himself, is in the employ of the KGB. Source did not keep scheduled meetings with Michael, and complained to Kolberg that she was unwilling to continue work as an informant. After this complaint, Kalkowski had no further contact with Michael. Source reported of three (3) months in 1971, Source was an intimate friend of one Jürgen Lohm, born in 1930, in Chemnitz, Germany, now Karl-Marx-Stadt, SED, who resided from 1970 to 1972 at the Hotel Stadt Berlin, in the DDR, and worked as a technical director at the Warenhaus Zentrum, which housed Source's place of employment. Lohm was also a friend of Morkert. Because of her relationship with Lohm, Kalkowski filed for a divorce in 1971, intending to marry Lohm. Lohm, who has worked for the KGB since his university days in Leipzig, told Source that his current instructions were to be ready for assignment with an SAC Embassy in Western Europe, most probably in Belgrade. During her association with Lohm, he twice traveled to WP and the KGB for reasons unknown to Source. Source was also intimate with one Rudi Korn, born circa 1912, who resides at 2 Leniplatz, DDR-Mecklenburg, and maintains a modest, summer cottage at Buschringenwerder, DDR-Mecklenburg. Korn, who is divorced, is a former Hitler Jugend leader, and now a communist. He is a prominent cinema/television director of many films in the DDR. In 1970 or 1971, Korn invited Source to accompany him to a party at an MFA Laurel, address unknown, where, in the presence of eight (8) alleged KGB agents, classified files, showing CIA Agents' surveillance in Communist countries were shown. These files were allegedly produced by various Communist Intelligence Services. CONFIDENTIAL DD-212-3496c

(Information and Control Material)

In early 1971, Source was a witness at the trial of Christine Schaudel, born in approximately 1951, residing at an unknown address in the SSB, a saleswoman of the firm where Source was employed in the Zentrum Department Store. Schaudel and her boyfriend, fm. Prochling, born circa 1943, were both accused of theft from the Shopping Center. Source is convinced that Prochling works for the KGB.

Kalkowski revealed the names of two other KGB officers whose wives are employed at the TIPs and Diplomatic Shopping Centers: Frau Engelsdorff and Frau Schwingel, an alleged Major in an KGB Guard Regiment.

On 13 May 1973, Mrs. Kirlle, born in approximately 1947, a friend of Source who resides at 30 Stern Aller, Berlin-Charlottenburg, W. Germany, traveled at Source's request to the SSB to pick up some personal papers for her from her former neighbor, Barbara Rose. Rose, born in circa 1943, and residing at 9 Karlstraße, 333-Halle, told Kirlle that she wanted nothing more to do with Source, whom she accused of revealing her planned emigration to the West to the US Bureau of the Sozialdemokratische Partei Deutschlands (SPD-Social Democratic Party of the FRG). The KGB allegedly learned of her desire to escape, and interrogated Rose concerning her planned flight from the SSB.

The following individuals spotted by Source, were recruited or attempted for recruitment by the KGB:

Renate Adam, born circa 1943 in Durb/Kappelburg, Germany, now 5200, presently residing in the US, possibly in San Francisco, California. Adam, who escaped from the SSB in 1960, is a florist, but now works as a cosmetician. She emigrated to the US in 1964 or 1965. Source met Adam on two (2) occasions in the Summers of 1969 and 1971 at the home of her parents (names unknown) in Durb, SSBG, while Adam was visiting the SSBG. The KGB allegedly had no interest in Adam, but through correspondence, Kalkowski and Adam became friends.

Judy Zelenec, born circa 1945, residing at an unknown address in Massachusetts, U.S.A. Zelenec, who is single, is allegedly employed at a medical energy Institute in the US. Zelenec is an acquaintance of Source's husband, whom she met at a winter pole tournament in Yugoslavia in 1965. In September 1969, Zelenec spent five (5) days as a guest in Source's home in the SSB. The KGB expressed a great interest in Zelenec, and ordered Kalkowski to introduce her to others for possible recruitment. Source allegedly refused to do so because Zelenec was a friend of her husband. Source does not know if Zelenec was ever approached by the KGB. She and Zelenec remained in letter contact until 1972.

Oto Gyepach, born 3 April 1933, in Budapest, Hungary, residence 103-119, 65th Blvd., Forest Hills, New York. Gyepach is a US citizen of Hungarian background. Kalkowski and Gyepach became acquainted while both were vacationing in Hungary in the Summer of 1971. They were intimate friends until September 1972. On several occasions, Source flew to Budapest to see Gyepach. The KGB was allegedly interested in Gyepach, although Source never reported their contact, or at least the extent thereof. Gyepach is allegedly employed with the firm of Parker (no further information), and spent one (1) year in Europe, from 1971 to 1972.

Ladislao Gray, born circa 1919, in Budapest, Hungary, residing at Gatterhofer 1, Vienna, Austria. Gray is divorced, and an Austrian citizen. He delivered cigar lighting equipment to Hungary, and is a friend of the aforementioned Otto Gyepach. Whenever Source met with Gyepach in Budapest, she met Gray. She allegedly never told the KGB about Gray, although in November 1972, when she saw Gray in Budapest, Source told him of her KGB affiliations.

Heinz Brauner, born circa 1944, residing in Vienna, address unknown, however, an Austrian citizen, is the owner of a small advertising agency in Vienna. Source became acquainted with Brauner in Hungary in 1968. In late 1969, Brauner visited Source in the SSB. Brauner spent five (5) days in the SSB, and was introduced to Source to her KGB Agent Handler for possible recruitment. Brauner was, according to Source, very possibly recruited to work for the KGB.

Two LNU's, born circa 1912, a Turkish citizen from Ankara, Turkey. In 1960, this individual studied during the last term at US's Technical University, and resided at a student hotel in W., address unknown. Source indicated this person's name sounded like Pasina. She approached him for the KGB at the Leipzig Fair in the Fall of 1960, and introduced him to KGB Agent Rudi Kollberg. In June 1969, the KGB paid Source a special bonus of DM 50, for her "excellent work" in this case. Source is convinced that this individual was recruited for the KGB. Two LNU's and two LDU's two (2) Italian students who were never met in person by Source. During the Leipzig Fair in the Fall of 1960, source was instructed to approach these individuals for the KGB. Kalkowski was assisted by KGB Agent Eugen LNU, born circa 1933), but the two students failed to appear as planned. Peter Ebert, born circa 1935, residence 29 Mietten Allee, Berlin-Glienicke, W., telephone number 36766, married, employed in an architect's office. Source became acquainted with Ebert in the SSZ in 1969, where she introduced him to Kollberg for possible recruitment. Kalkowski supposes that Ebert now works for the KGB because she has stolen his car, a white Mercedes, W. license number D-N 6632, frequently in the SSZ. Ebert is sympathetic with the Christian Democratic Union political party of the FRG. Karl Neuschafer, born circa 1943, last resided in Altenbergestrasse, Munich 8, SSZ, where his transportation firm, Knorrin, was located. Source became acquainted with Neuschafer in the SSZ in 1969, and introduced him to her KGB agent Ender. At an unknown time in 1969, Neuschafer moved from Munich to W. A letter from Source to Neuschafer which she sent to his Munich address in the Spring of 1970 was returned in April 1970, with a note indicating that Neuschafer no longer resided at that address. Hans Buhmann, born circa 1947, residence 4 Winkelmann Strasse, Berlin-Mitte, W. Buhmann is single, and either owns his own firm of works for the firm of Spiritusse Verlag, a liquor shop. Kalkowski met Buhmann at the Leipzig Fair in the Spring of 1969, but after reporting the contact to the KGB, he learned that they had no interest in Buhmann because of his "negative attitude" towards the SSZ. After arriving in W., Source telephoned Buhmann who showed no interest in meeting her. Oskar Wiese, born circa 1939, residence da Langkofelweg, Berlin-Lichtenrade, W. Wiese is the former husband of Source's sister, Maritta Schwabe. Wiese is a professor of Chemistry at W.'s Free University. Leftwing politically, he frequently visited the SSZ. The KGB allegedly had a great interest in Wiese, but Source allegedly refused to introduce Wiese to the KGB. She does not believe that Wiese is working for the KGB. Kalkowski had submitted biographical data reports concerning Wiese to the KGB. Two LNU's and two LDU's. These individuals are a Dutch and Belgian student respectively, with whom Source became acquainted in the SSZ in 1960 and 1969. The KGB had no interest in them. The following inscriptions were furnished by Kalkowski: Bernd Reitl <table> <tbody> <tr> <td>Height</td> <td>5'8" - 5'10"</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Weight</td> <td>170 - 185 lbs</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Hair</td> <td>Black; bushy</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Eyes</td> <td>Color unknown, wear no glasses</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Age</td> <td>25 - 35 years</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Build</td> <td>Heavy</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Maintainance</td> <td>Right handed; erect posture; smokes cigarettes; speaks unaccented, high German.
